The Mexican papers state that a number of mails have been recently attacked and robbed. N. O. Bee.

SPANISH VENGEANCE.—We extract the following from the Courier des Etats Unis: "A Spanish officer has been arrested who is guilty of an extraordinary crime. Don Rafael Iturriaga, one of the wealthiest nobles in Jaen, gave a soiree in his mansion, at which some of the principal families of the country were assembled. They were dancing the Polka, when Narcisco Medina, lieutenant in the 1st regiment of infantry, entered the room in uniform, with a pistol in his hand. He walked up to Don Manuel Valdeastillias, a young advocate, and pointing the pistol to his breast, fired, and the latter fell, almost fatally wounded. It would be easier to imagine than to describe the scene which followed. The cause of the attempted assassination was ascertained to be, that Don Manuel Valdeastillias had had some days before a quarrel respecting a rich heiress, to whom they were both paying their ad-dresses. Medina will be judged by a council of

If they do not cut off "Don Narcisco de Medina's" head, we hope they will part of the name of "Don Manuel Valdeastillias!" It is a great waste of types to set up such names.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—The following letter recently received from Capt. Garrow, a gentleman well known and of the highest respectability, residing in Mobile, Ala. shows conclusively the value and efficacy of Sands's Sarsaparilla, in cases of chronic rheumatism:

Mobile, Ala., July 3, 1844.

Messrs. Sands: Gentlemen—I was afflicted for more than ten years with rheumatism, and it is with pleasure I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you the salutary effect your Sarsaparilla had on me. In January, 1844, I purchased of your agents, Messrs. Mosley & Tucker, five bottles, which I took agreeably to the printed directions, which entirely removed the complaint, and I have now every reason to believe my health is permanently recovered.

Yours, very respectfully

UNITED STATES HOTEL, WASHINGTON, D.C.
BY TYLER & BIRCH.—The subscribers having opened this large and commodious establishment on Pennsylvania avenue, between 3d and 4½ streets, on the square next to and west of the railroad depot, invite the attention of the travelling public and community at large to the ample arrangements they have made for their accommodation, and for all things appertaining to their comfort and convenience. The very liberal encouragement which the public extended to Thompson Tyler, while proprietor of the Exchange Hotel, induces him to hope that he may continue to deserve its patronage at the United States Hotel, and he assures them that neither pains nor expense will be spared in his efforts to cater to the tastes of all. This Hotel is one of the largest in the Union, and will accommodate 300 persons. It has numerous private parlors for families, and is but two minutes' walk from the railroad depot, and five from the Capitol.
